The Remuneration Report is divided into the following sections:

- (a) Section I – in accordance with Article 123-ter of the Consolidated Law on Finance and Article 9-bis of the Directive – illustrates the Company's policy on the remuneration of the members of the board of directors, general managers and key management personnel (if appointed) and of the members of the Company's control body, taking into account the governance system adopted by the Company as well as the procedures used for the adoption, review and implementation of such policy, including the measures aimed at avoiding or managing possible conflicts of interest.

In addition, pursuant to Article 84-quater, paragraph 2-bis, of the Issuers' Regulations, the remuneration policy described in Section I of the Report:

- indicates how it contributes to the Company's business strategy, long-term interests and sustainability, and is determined by taking into account the remuneration and working conditions of the Company's employees;
  - defines the different components of remuneration that may be awarded; where variable remuneration is awarded, establish clear, comprehensive and differentiated criteria for the award of such remuneration, based on financial and non-financial performance objectives, where appropriate taking into account CSR-related criteria;
  - specifies the elements of the policy from which – in the event of exceptional circumstances indicated in art. 123-ter, paragraph 3-bis, of the TUF – it is possible to temporarily deviate as well as the procedural conditions under which the derogation may be applied, without prejudice to the provisions of Consob Regulation no. 17221/2010 on related party transactions;
- (b) Section II contains the individual remuneration for directors, members of the board of statutory auditors and general managers and in aggregate form for key managers (where appointed):
    - it provides an adequate, clear and understandable representation of each of the items that make up the remuneration, including benefits in the event of termination of office or termination of employment (if any), highlighting their compliance with the Company's remuneration policy for the year in question and the ways in which remuneration contributes to the Company's long-term results;

it illustrates in detail the remuneration paid in the reporting year for whatever reason and in whatever form by the Company and its subsidiaries or associates.

Moreover, Section II contains information on the equity investments held, in the issuer and its subsidiaries, by members of the administration and control bodies, senior managers and other key managers (where appointed), as well as their not-legally-separated spouses and children (minors), directly or via subsidiaries, trusts or intermediaries, in accordance with the provisions of Article 84-quater of the Consob Regulation on Issuers.

The following should be noted:

- the remuneration policy, as described in Section I of the Report, amends the remuneration policy approved by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting of the Company of 17 April 2024, in order to include certain clarifications with particular reference to the variable component of the remuneration of the executive directors, with regard, among other things, to the related sustainability objective;
- Section II of the Report, as it relates to the financial year 2024, contains a summary of the remuneration attributed to the members of the company boards in office during the reference year.
