PRESS RELEASE

Edil San Felice Secures New €7.5 Million Contract from ANAS for Ordinary Maintenance WorkValue of the order in 2025 Rise to €55.5 Million

Naples, June 11, 2025 – Edil San Felice S.p.A. Società Benefit (“the Company” or “Edil San Felice”) – a leading integrated operator active in the maintenance of critical infrastructure in Italy and listed on the Euronext Growth Milan market – has been awarded a new contract by ANAS worth €7,500,000 for ordinary maintenance work in the Campania region.

The award specifically concerns Lot 7 of the three-year framework agreement for scheduled road maintenance works, which is divided into 16 lots.

Edil San Felice will be responsible for interventions aimed at improving road safety and upgrading the road axis and its intersections. The works will also include the stabilization of embankments and slopes using techniques such as reinforced and mechanically stabilized earth. Furthermore, support structures and repairs to damaged road surfaces will be carried out.

With this contract, Edil San Felice's total awarded contracts in 2025 exceed €55.5 million, mainly driven by highway maintenance work, which continues to be a highly strategic area of business for the Company's growth path.

Lorenzo di Palma, CEO of Edil San Felice, commented: "The first months of 2025 have marked a particularly positive period for Edil San Felice, with total awarded contracts exceeding €55 million. This result reflects a well-planned and strongly pursued growth strategy by our management team, which had already decided to accelerate hiring in the final months of 2024. Over 75 new hires have joined, bringing our total workforce to 315 employees. This strategic choice aims to equip the Company with the necessary skills and stability to support business expansion, fully aligned with our long-standing operational philosophy based on a 'zero subcontracting' policy."
