NEW GROUP CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER APPOINTMENT

Milan, January 23, 2026 – The Board of Directors of Nexi S.p.A. approved the appointment of Piergiorgio Pedron as Group Chief Financial Officer, effective as of April 1, 2026.

Piergiorgio Pedron has a consolidated experience in senior financial leadership roles gained within multinational and publicly listed groups. Since 2011, he has held positions of increasing responsibility at DiaSorin, where he served as Senior Corporate VP and Group CFO, managing the Finance, Controlling, Treasury, Investor Relations, IT, Legal and Strategic Procurement departments, and supporting the Group through a phase of significant growth and transformation. In this context, he led important extraordinary transactions, among which the acquisition and integration of Luminex. Previously, he built a long career at Jabil, taking on European-level finance responsibilities after having been appointed CFO of the Italian subsidiary. He also held operational and financial leadership roles at De Agostini Editore and Hewlett-Packard, developing broad expertise across finance, industrial operations, and management control.

In this context, Bernardo Mingrone will strengthen the focus on Nexi's Italian business as CEO of Nexi Payments and Chief Regional Officer Italy, a role he took on last September, while also retaining the role of Deputy General Manager in support the Group's strategic priorities both on a national and international level.

As of today, Piergiorgio Pedron does not hold any shares in Nexi S.p.A..
