The parties with the right to submit lists are the Board of Directors as well as multiple shareholders who, either alone or together with others own, collectively, voting shares representing the percentage of share capital required by laws or regulations from time to time in force. The decision to submit a list by the Board of Directors must be resolved with the favourable vote of two-thirds of the members in office, subject to a preliminary investigation by the internal board committee with responsibility for appointments; the list submitted by the Board of Directors must contain a minimum number of candidates equal to that indicated in the proposal submitted by the Board of Directors, increased by one third, rounded to the nearest whole number if the application of the increase does not result in a whole number of candidates.

6. Each list with a number of candidates equal to or greater than 3 (three) (i) must be made up of candidates belonging to both genders, to ensure respect for the gender balance to at least to the minimum extent required by current laws and regulations and (ii) must ensure that at least the majority of the candidates meet the independence requirements set out in the Articles of Association, without prejudice to the fact that the first candidate on any list, including lists with less than 3 (three) candidates, must meet the aforementioned independence requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Board of Directors submits a list, each list with a number of candidates equal to or greater than 2 (two) (i) must be made up of candidates belonging to both genders, to ensure respect for the gender balance to at least to the minimum extent required by current laws and regulations and (ii) must ensure that at least the majority of the candidates (i.e. half for lists containing 2 (two) candidates) meet the independence requirements set out in the Articles of Association, without prejudice to the fact that the first candidate on any list submitted by shareholders, even if it contains only one candidate, must meet the aforementioned independence requirements.

7. In order for a list submitted by shareholders to be valid, it must be filed at the Registered Office or the Head Office, also by means of remote communication and in accordance with the procedures stated in the notice of call which allows the identification of the parties submitting the list, no later than the twenty-five days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting and must be made available to the public at the Registered Office, on the Company's website and through other channels provided for under current laws at least twenty-one days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting (or within a different deadline as per applicable regulations). Any list submitted by the Board of Directors pursuant to paragraph 5 above must be filed at the Registered Office and published in the manner described above no later than the fortieth day prior to the date set for the Shareholders' Meeting.

8. Each party entitled (as well as (i) entitled persons belonging to the same group, intended as a party, which need not be a corporation, exercising control pursuant to Article 2359 of the Italian Civil Code and any subsidiary controlled by, or under the control of the said party, or (ii) shareholders who are party to a shareholders' agreement as per Article 122 of Legislative Decree no. 58 of 24 February 1998, or (iii) entitled persons who are otherwise associated with each other in a material relationship pursuant to current and applicable statutory or regulatory provisions) may submit individually or with others only one list, just like each candidate may only be included in one list, or otherwise be considered ineligible.

9. In the event the shareholders submit lists, ownership of the minimum shareholding required for submitting lists is calculated based on the shares registered to each shareholder, or to multiple shareholders combined, on the day when the lists are filed at the Company. Ownership of the number of shares necessary to submit lists must be proven pursuant to current regulations; proof may be submitted to the Company also after the lists have been filed, provided that it is submitted within the deadline for when the Company must make the lists public.

10. The entitled persons who submitted a list must also file any additional documentation and declarations required by the laws and regulations in force at the time, within the deadline indicated in paragraph 7 above, as well as the following disclosures:

- for shareholders, information pertaining to those who submitted the lists, with information on the total percentage of interest held;
- information on the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates included in the list;
- a statement whereby the individual candidates irrevocably accept the position (subject to their appointment) and attest, under their responsibility, that there are no grounds for their ineligibility or incompatibility to stand as candidate, and that they meet the requirements prescribed for the office by the Articles of Association and by the current laws and regulations and the possible possession of the independence requirements referred to in paragraph 3 above, according to a format that will be made public by the company in advance that takes into account the guidelines of the Supervisory Authorities;

Any list that does not meet the above requirements shall be deemed to have not been submitted.

11. Each eligible voter may vote for one list only.

12. Except for the cases referred to in paragraphs 13 and 14 below, the members of the Board of Directors shall be elected as follows:

a) a number of Directors equal to the number of board members shall be drawn - in the order in which they appear on the list - from the list receiving the majority of votes cast except, depending on the case, 2 (two) or 3 (three) that will be taken from the minority list(s) that are not connected with those who submitted or voted for the list that obtained the highest number of votes in accordance with the current regulations, as specified below:

a.1) if only two lists are submitted, the remaining 2 (two) Directors will be drawn in consecutive order from the second list that received the highest number of votes at the meeting, a.2) if 3 (three) or more lists are submitted, 2 (two) Directors will be drawn in consecutive order from the second list that obtained the highest number of votes at the meeting regardless of the percentage of votes received, while 1 (one) Director will be drawn in consecutive order from the third list that received the highest number of votes at the meeting provided that it received at least 2% of the votes cast at the meeting, it being understood that in the event of the failure to receive this percentage by the third list by number of votes the mechanism provided for in the previous paragraph a.1) will be applied;

b) if the majority list does not reach a sufficient number of candidates for the election of the number of Directors to be appointed, according to the mechanism indicated in letter a) above, all the candidates from the majority list shall be appointed and the remaining Directors shall be drawn from the minority list, in the order in which they appear on the list, receiving the highest number of votes; if necessary, directors shall also be drawn from the second most voted minority list, always in the order in which they appear on the list, until the number of Directors to elect has been reached;

c) if the number of candidates in the majority as well as minorities lists submitted is less than the number of the Directors to be elected, the remaining Directors shall be elected through a resolution made by the Shareholders' Meeting by relative majority (and therefore without taking into account any abstentions), ensuring compliance with the principles of independence and gender equality provided for respectively in articles 13 paragraph 3 and 13 paragraph 6 of Articles of Association. If there is a tie vote between two or more candidates, a run-off will be held between these candidates by means of another vote at the Shareholders' Meeting;

d) if only one list or no list is filed, the Shareholders' Meeting shall act in accordance with the procedures set forth in letter c) above; in the event of a tie between lists or candidates, the shareholders' meeting shall hold a second round of voting to establish their ranking;

e) if the required minimum number of Independent Directors and/or Directors belonging to the least represented gender is not elected, the Directors of the most voted list who have the highest consecutive number and do not meet the requirements in question shall be replaced by the next candidates on the same list, who meet the necessary requirements. Should it prove impossible, even after applying this criterion, to identify the Directors who meet the above requirements, the above substitution criterion shall apply to the minorities lists receiving the highest votes from which the candidates elected have been drawn;

f) if even after applying the substitution criteria referred to in letter e) above, suitable substitutions have not been found, the Shareholders' Meeting shall resolve by a relative majority (and therefore without taking into account any abstentions). In this case, the substitutions shall be effected starting from the most voted lists and from the candidates bearing the highest number in consecutive order.

13. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 12 above, if the Board of Directors has submitted a list and the said list obtains the highest number of votes, the election of the members of the Board of Directors shall proceed as follows:

a) the minorities must be assigned a total number of seats on the Board of Directors equal to twenty per cent of the total number of members of that body, rounded up to the next whole number if the application of the allocation quota indicated does not result in a whole number of members to be allocated to the minorities. The seats allocated to the minorities, as defined above, are then distributed as follows:

a.1) if the first two minority lists that are not linked to the Board list under current regulations, as determined by the votes cast at the Shareholders' Meeting, obtain a total of no more than twenty per cent of the total votes cast, those two minority lists shall compete for the seats allocated to the minorities and, in particular, such seats shall be distributed among them in proportion to the votes they have obtained, as follows. Specifically, these votes are divided by one, two, three, and so on. The quotients thus obtained are consecutively assigned to the candidates on each of these lists, in the order in which they are listed on the lists. The quotients thus assigned to the candidates on these lists are arranged in a single descending order. Those who have obtained the highest results are elected, up to the total number of Directors to be elected from the minorities. If several candidates have obtained the same quotient, the candidate from the list that has not yet elected any Directors or that has elected the fewest Directors is elected. If none of these lists has yet elected a Director or if all have elected the same number of Directors, the candidate from the list that has obtained the highest number of votes is elected. In the event of a tie in the list votes and again in the case of a tie in the quotient, a new vote shall be taken by the entire Shareholders' Meeting, and the candidate who obtains a simple majority of the votes (and therefore without taking into account any abstentions) shall be elected. If there is only one minority list (and it has not obtained more than twenty per cent of the total votes cast), the Directors due to the minorities shall be drawn entirely from that list;

a.2) if the first two minority lists that are not linked to the Board list under current regulations, as determined by the votes cast at the Shareholders' Meeting, obtain a total of more than twenty per cent of the total votes cast at the Shareholders' Meeting, the seats due to the minorities shall be distributed - in proportion to the votes obtained respectively - among the minority lists that have obtained a percentage of votes not less than three per cent of the votes cast at the Shareholders' Meeting, with the clarification that these lists shall also be allocated proportionally the votes obtained by those that have obtained a percentage of votes less than three per cent. For the purposes of distribution, the quotient mechanism shall apply, as well as the additional provisions for cases of a tie referred to in point a.1) above. Furthermore, even in this case, where

- there is a single minority list (and it has obtained more than twenty per cent of the total votes cast), the Directors due to the minorities shall be drawn entirely from that list;
- b) the remaining seats on the Board are allocated to the list submitted by the Board of Directors, according to the following procedures:
- (i) the Shareholders' Meeting proceeds to a further individual vote on each candidate on the list submitted by the Board of Directors;
 - (ii) the aforementioned candidates are ranked according to the number of votes obtained by each of them, from highest to lowest;
 - (iii) the candidates who have obtained the most votes are elected, up to the number of seats to be allocated to the list submitted by the Board of Directors;
 - (iv) in the event of a tie between candidates, the order in which they are listed on the list shall be used. This criterion also applies to candidates who equally do not receive any votes;
- c) if the minority lists entitled to allocation do not have a sufficient number of candidates to ensure that the number of Directors to be elected from them is reached in accordance with the mechanisms indicated in letter a), the remaining Directors shall be drawn from the other minority lists (entitled to allocation) by applying the quotients and the additional provisions for cases of a tie referred to in letter a.1) above, until the number of Directors to be elected is completed. If it is not possible to identify the remaining Directors in this way, they shall be chosen from among the unelected candidates on the Board of Directors' list in the order indicated in letter b(ii) above or, in the cases and in accordance with the provisions of letter b)(iv) above, on the basis of the consecutive order in which they are listed on the list;
- d) if, on the basis of the above criteria, the minimum number of Independent Directors and/or Directors belonging to the under-represented gender is not elected, the candidates drawn from the Board of Directors' list who do not meet the relevant requirements and who obtained the lowest number of votes in the additional individual vote referred to in letter b(i) above or, in the cases and in accordance with letter b) (iv), who bear the highest consecutive number on the list, shall be replaced by the next candidates meeting the requirement or requirements from the same list, in the order indicated in letter b(ii) above or, again in the cases and in accordance with the provisions of letter b)(iv) above, on the basis of the lowest consecutive number which they bear on the list. If, even after applying this criterion, it is not possible to identify a sufficient number of Directors with the above characteristics, the replacement shall apply to the minority lists (entitled to allocation and from which the elected candidates were drawn), based on the highest quotients pursuant to letter a.1) above or the additional provisions set out in the same letter for cases of a tie, up to the number of members to be replaced;
- e) if, even after applying the replacement criteria referred to in letter d) above, no suitable replacements are identified, the Shareholders' Meeting shall decide by relative majority (and therefore without taking into account any abstentions). In this case too, unsuitable candidates shall be replaced in the order set out in letter d) above.

If the list submitted by the Board of Directors has contributed, in accordance with this paragraph, to the allocation of the elected Directors, resulting in the list receiving the highest number of votes at the Shareholders' Meeting, the internal board committee established for internal control and risk management, appointed by the Board of Directors, shall be chaired by an Independent Director chosen from among the elected Directors who were not drawn from the list submitted by the Board of Directors.

14. If the list submitted by the Board of Directors is the only one duly submitted or the only one to receive votes at the Shareholders' Meeting, the Directors to be elected shall be drawn entirely from that list, without prejudice to the need to proceed in accordance with paragraph 13, letter b). If the minimum number of Independent Directors and/or Directors belonging to the less represented gender is not elected, the Directors who do not meet the relevant requirements and who obtained the lowest number of votes in the additional individual vote referred to in letter b(i) above or, in the cases and in accordance with the provisions of letter b) (iv), who bear the highest consecutive number on the list, shall be replaced by the next candidates meeting the requirement or requirements from the same list, in the order indicated in letter b(ii) above or, again in the cases and in accordance with the provisions of letter b)(iv) above, with the lowest consecutive number. If it is not possible to identify a sufficient number of suitable replacements in this way either, the Shareholders' Meeting shall decide by relative majority (and therefore without taking into account any abstentions) and the unsuitable candidates shall be replaced in the order set out above.

15. In the event of death, resignation, withdrawal or removal from office for any other reason of a Director, or where a Director no longer meets the eligibility requirements, the Board of Directors can take steps to coopt a Director, in compliance with the principles of independence, minority representation (where applicable) and gender equality. If, in the above cases, the minimum number of independent Directors and/or the number of Directors belonging to the least represented gender envisaged respectively by articles 13 paragraph 3 and 13 paragraph 6 of the Articles of Association is not met, the Board of Directors shall replace them.

16. For the appointment of Directors needed to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors, the Shareholders' Meeting shall resolve by relative majority (and therefore without taking into account any abstentions), ensuring that the principles of independence, minority representation (where applicable) and gender equality established by current law and regulations and the Articles of Association are met.
