Protection of persons and other entities with regard to the “processing of personal data” Privacy Policy pursuant to GDPR 679/2016 and Italian Legislative Decree 196/2003 and subsequent amendments and additions

Pursuant to Article 13 of Regulation EU no. 679 of 27.04.2016, "GDPR", and Italian Legislative Decree no. 196 of 30.06.2003, as amended by Italian Legislative Decree no. 101 of 10.08.2018, STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l., as data controller of the personal data ("the Data") hereby informs you of the following:

1. PURPOSE OF THE DATA PROCESSING

The data provided will be processed by STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. on computers and/or on paper for the following purposes:

- a) Execution of the obligations relating to representation at the meeting and the expression of the vote of the party represented in accordance with the instructions given thereby to STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l.
- b) Fulfilment of the obligations envisaged by laws, regulations and Community legislation, or provisions issued by Authorities and Regulators or administrative practices.

The provision of data and the processing thereof by STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. for these purposes, necessary for the management of the contractual relationship or related to the fulfilment of regulatory obligations, is mandatory and therefore does not require explicit consent, otherwise STUDIO SEGRE S.R.L. shall not be able to establish and manage this relationship.

The data are accessible only to those who need them within STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. because of their work and tasks.

These persons, whose number will be limited to the minimum necessary, process the data as “appointees” designated for this purpose and appropriately instructed to avoid the loss, destruction, unauthorised access or unauthorised processing of the data.

The Data Controller is STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. with registered office in Via Valeggio 41 – 10129 Turin (Italy), in the person of the director designated for this function.

The person responsible for processing at STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. is Mr. Massimo Segre, who is responsible for responding to any requests made with respect to the processing of personal data. Domiciled for the activity performed at STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l., he has an updated list of any other internal or external data processing managers.

2. DISCLOSURE OF DATA TO THIRD PARTIES

STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. may disclose the data for the same purposes for which they were collected to the Authorities and to the Supervisory and Control Bodies, or to other parties specified by them, by virtue of measures issued by them, or established by laws, including European Community laws, regulations or administrative practices.

3. TRANSFER OF DATA ABROAD

The data of the data subject may also be transferred abroad, within the EU, for the same purposes listed in point 1 above, with or without the use of electronic or automated means.

4. PROCESSING METHODS

STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l. processes the data of the data subjects in a lawful and proper manner, and in such a way as to ensure their confidentiality and security. The processing – which includes collection and any other operation contemplated in the definition of “processing” pursuant to article 4, no. 2) of the GDPR – is carried out using manual, computerised and/or electronic tools, with organisational methods and logics that are strictly correlated with the purposes specified.

5. EXERCISING YOUR RIGHTS

Data subjects may assert their rights based on articles 15 to 23 of the GDPR. Among other things, these provide that the data subject may request access to his/her data, obtain a copy of the information processed and, where necessary, update, correct, supplement or delete the data or block the processing, as well as object in whole or in part, on legitimate grounds, to the processing of his/her data.

In accordance with the law, the data subject may assert the aforementioned rights by contacting STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l., Via Valeggio 41 – 10129 Turin (Italy), for the attention of the Data Controller or Data Processing Manager, as identified above.

STUDIO SEGRE S.r.l.

The undersigned also acknowledges and does not object to the privacy policy regarding the protection of personal data of the Designated Representative.

ART. 135 UNDECIES OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAW ON FINANCE

Italian Legislative Decree no. 58 of 24 February 1998: “Consolidated Law on Finance”

Art. 135-decies

(Conflict of interest of representative and alternates)

1. The granting of a proxy to a representative with a conflict of interest is permitted provided that the representative informs the shareholder in writing of the circumstances giving rise to such conflict, and provided that there are specific voting instructions for each resolution for which the representative must vote on behalf of the shareholder. The representative bears the burden of proof that it has informed the shareholder the circumstances giving rise to the conflict of interest. The second paragraph of article 1711 of the Italian Civil Code shall not apply.
2. For the purposes of this article, there shall in any event be a conflict of interest where the representative or alternate:
 - a) Controls the company or is controlled by it, even jointly, or is subject to joint control with the company.
 - b) Is linked to the company or exerts a significant influence on it or the latter exerts a significant influence on the representative.
 - c) Is a member of the board of directors or board of statutory auditors of the company or of the parties indicated in letters a) and b).
 - d) Is an employee or auditor of the company or the parties referred to in letter a).
 - e) Is a spouse, relative or similar to the fourth degree of the parties indicated in letters a) to c).
 - f) Is linked to the company or to the parties indicated in letters a), b), c) and e) by self-employed or employed relationships or by other financial relationships that compromise their independence.
3. The replacement of the representative with an alternate having a conflict of interest is allowed only if the alternate has been specified by the shareholder. Paragraph 1 shall apply in such a case. The disclosure obligations and the related burden of proof remain with the representative.
4. This article shall also apply in the case of transfer of shares by proxy.

Art. 135-undecies

(Representative appointed by the company with listed shares)

1. Unless otherwise envisaged in the articles of association, for each shareholders' meeting companies with listed shares shall designate a party to whom the shareholders may delegate – by the end of the second trading day prior to the date set for the shareholders' meeting, even for a call subsequent to the first – a proxy with instructions on how to vote on all or some of the items on the agenda. Such proxy shall be effective only for proposals for which voting instructions are given.
2. The proxy is granted by signing a delegation form, the content of which is regulated by Consob. The delegation of the proxy does not entail any costs for the shareholder. The proxy and voting instructions may always be revoked within the period specified in paragraph 1.
3. The shares for which the proxy has been granted, even partially, are counted for the purpose of the regular constitution of the meeting. With regard to proposals for which voting instructions have not been given, the shares are not counted for the purpose of calculating the majority and the share of capital required for the approval of the resolutions.
4. The party designated as representative is required to disclose any interest that it has on its own behalf or on behalf of third parties with respect to the proposed resolutions on the agenda. It also maintains the confidentiality of the content of the voting instructions received until the beginning of the voting, without prejudice to the possibility of disclosing this information to its employees and auxiliaries, who are subject to the same duty of confidentiality. The party designated as representative can only be delegated proxy power in compliance with this article.
5. With the regulations referred to in paragraph 2, Consob may determine the cases in which the representative who is not in any of the conditions detailed in article 135-decies may cast a vote that differs from what is specified in the instructions.

Article 135-undecies.1

(Participation in the shareholders' meeting through the designated representative)

1. The Articles of Association may provide that participation in the shareholders' meeting and the exercise of voting rights shall take place exclusively through the representative designated by the company pursuant to Article 135 undecies. The designated representative may also be granted proxies or sub-proxies pursuant to Article 135-novies, as an exception to Article 135-undecies, paragraph 4.
2. The submission of proposals for resolutions at the shareholders' meeting is not allowed. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 126 bis, paragraph 1, first sentence, those entitled to vote may individually submit proposals for resolutions on items on the agenda or proposals whose submission is otherwise permitted by law no later than fifteen days prior to the date of the first or single call of the shareholders' meeting. The resolution proposals are made available to the public on the company's website within two days after the deadline. Entitlement to the individual presentation of resolution proposals is subject to the company's receipt of the notice envisaged in Article 83 sexies.
3. The right to ask questions referred to in Article 127 ter may only be exercised prior to the shareholders' meeting. The company shall provide answers to the questions received at least three days before the shareholders' meeting.
4. Paragraph 1 also applies to companies admitted to trading on a multilateral trading facility.
