Notes on Alternative Performance Measures

Pursuant to the ESMA guidelines on alternative performance measures ("APMs") (ESMA/2015/1415), endorsed by CONSOB (see CONSOB Communication No. 0092543 dated 3 December 2015), it should be noted that the reclassified statements included in this Directors' Report on Operations show a number of differences from the official statements shown in the accounting tables set out in the following pages and in the notes with regard to the terminology and the level of detail.

Specifically, the reclassified consolidated Income Statement makes use of the following terms:

- EBITDA, which is equivalent to "Total revenues" net of total operating costs in the official consolidated Income Statement;
- EBIT, which is equivalent to "Total revenues" net of total operating costs, depreciation, amortisation and impairment in the official consolidated Income Statement.

The reclassified consolidated Balance Sheet was prepared based on the items recognised as assets or liabilities in the official consolidated Balance Sheet and makes use of the following terms:

- FIXED ASSETS, given by the sum of tangible and intangible assets, goodwill, deferred tax assets/liabilities and other non-current assets;
- NET WORKING CAPITAL, given by the sum of inventories, trade receivables/payables, current provisions, tax receivables/payables and other assets/liabilities and current receivables/payables;
- CAPITAL EMPLOYED, given by the algebraic sum of fixed assets, net working capital and post-employment benefits and other non-current liabilities.

These APMs, in line with the data presented in the consolidated Income Statement and Balance Sheet in accordance with the recommendations outlined above, were deemed to be significant as they represent parameters that succinctly and clearly depict the Company's financial position and economic performance, also by providing comparative data. The APMs adopted are consistent with those used in the previous year.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT ON OPERATIONS FOR THE FIRST THREE MONTHS OF 2026

Dear Shareholders,

The first quarter of 2026 confirms the Group's significant growth.

On March 2, 2026, PACE America, the U.S. subsidiary of the TXT Group, completed the closing of the investment in the SmartRoutes® division ("SR division") of Nexteon Technologies, Inc., a U.S.-based technology company specializing in advanced aviation software and route optimization solutions. The SR division, with a strong ESG focus, specializes in advanced real-time flight route optimization technologies designed to dynamically improve aircraft trajectories during flight. Through the use and integration of advanced trajectory models, operational constraints and real-time data, SR technology enables continuous optimization of flight profiles, allowing airlines to reduce fuel consumption, emissions and operating costs, while improving operational efficiency.

The completion of the SmartRoutes acquisition represents the third significant milestone for PACE and TXT in the first quarter of 2026, following the award of two major contracts with airlines ranked among the top five in the U.S. market, for a total expected recurring revenue value exceeding USD 10 million annually at steady state, starting from 2027.

In this context, PACE will carry out, during 2026, a project focused on the deployment and configuration of the FPO-SR solution. Pre-operational and validation activities are scheduled for the second half of 2026, with full entry into service expected in the fourth quarter of 2026. In both programs, the deployment will enable real-time collaboration between pilots and ground users, allowing aircraft to operate along the most efficient trajectory. This achievement reinforces PACE's strategic vision of a fully collaborative operational environment enabled by onboard IP connectivity.

In 2025, the SR division generated approximately USD 2.0 million in Annual Recurring Revenue (ARR), with an Adjusted EBITDA margin close to 35%. The full integration of SR assets into PACE's FPO offering, together with the expected contribution from recently signed customer contracts, is expected to bring recurring subscription revenues from the integrated FPO-SR offering to approximately USD 20 million by 2027, with an ARR CAGR of approximately 40%.

The consideration paid at closing for the acquisition of the SR division amounted to approximately USD 5 million, net of significant earn-out components payable in 2027 and linked to ARR generated from new contracts.

On March 27, 2026, TXT InfraWise, a startup spin-off of the Politecnico di Milano, was incorporated, focusing on the development of technologies for monitoring, analyzing and managing critical infrastructure. This initiative is part of TXT's development strategy aimed at strengthening its offering in the IoT/OT solutions segment for critical infrastructure monitoring. In particular, INFRAWISE will enable the integration into TXT's proprietary platform of advanced algorithmic models derived from the research of the Politecnico di Milano, enabling real-time and predictive analysis capabilities of infrastructure health status.

To date, TXT offers a comprehensive monitoring system that includes design, supply of sensors—both off-the-shelf and proprietary, also developed through the subsidiary Teratron GmbH—and an IoT/OT platform for data collection, management and diagnostics. The integration of advanced artificial intelligence-based models represents a distinctive and strategic element, with development potential across both existing clients and new markets, in Italy and abroad.

The initiative is also aimed at expanding the offering with software subscription-based services and at developing a highly qualified structure capable of providing specialized consulting up to the design, certification and testing of complex and critical systems.

Among the startup's shareholders and advisors are leading academic figures from the Politecnico di Milano, including Ferruccio Resta, former Rector and current professor at the University, as well as President of the National Center for Sustainable Mobility (MOST), and Marco Belloli, Head of the Department of Mechanical Engineering.

The transaction provides a 67% stake held by TXT and a 33% stake held by other operating partners linked to the University. TXT will support the startup's development through an interest-free shareholder loan of up to €1 million, intended for research and development activities, with a particular focus on the engineering of artificial intelligence agents based on algorithms developed by the Politecnico di Milano. A put option is also envisaged in favor of minority shareholders, exercisable after three years, with valuation linked to the project's profitability.

The main consolidated economic and financial results for the first three months of 2026 were as follows:

- Revenues amounted to €109.2 million, up 18.5% compared to €92.2 million in the first three months of 2025. Organic growth stood at 17.3%.

The European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) published, on March 4, 2021, the Guidelines on disclosure requirements under Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the "Prospectus Regulation").

Through "Reminder Notice No. 5/21" dated April 29, 2021, CONSOB stated its intention to align its supervisory practices regarding the net financial position with the aforementioned ESMA Guidelines. In particular, CONSOB indicated that prospectuses approved by it as of May 5, 2021 must comply with the aforementioned ESMA Guidelines.

Accordingly, based on the provisions above, listed issuers are required to present, in the explanatory notes to their annual and interim financial statements published as of May 5, 2021, a new statement of indebtedness prepared in accordance with paragraphs 175 et seq. of the ESMA Guidelines.

In this regard, the ESMA Guidelines introduce the following main changes to the statement of indebtedness:

- the term "Net Financial Position" is replaced with "Total Financial Indebtedness";
- within non-current financial indebtedness, trade payables and other non-current payables must also be included, i.e., non-interest-bearing liabilities that contain a significant implicit or explicit financing component (for example, payables to suppliers with maturities exceeding 12 months);
- within current financial indebtedness, the current portion of non-current financial indebtedness must be disclosed separately;
- "financial debt" includes interest-bearing liabilities, which also comprise, among others, financial liabilities relating to short- and/or long-term lease contracts. Disclosure on lease liabilities must be provided separately.

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD AND OUTLOOK

After a first quarter of 2026 marked by organic growth exceeding the targets set by management, the TXT Group expects business development to continue over the coming quarters at rates in line with the annual guidance. In parallel, the Group intends to accelerate its external growth plan through the contribution of the acquisitions already completed and disclosed to the market, as well as through additional extraordinary transactions expected by the end of the second quarter of the year.

In the Smart Solutions division, starting from the second quarter, an acceleration in growth is expected, driven both by organic development and by the contribution of the three acquisitions completed in the first part of the year. In the Aerospace & Defence segment, the Group expects sustained growth thanks to the strengthening of its positioning in the defence sector and the progressive ramp up of activities related to the contracts acquired in the Flight Operations segment. In this area, proprietary route optimisation solutions continue to record positive demand. The Industrial segment is showing performance above the expectations of the industrial plan, supported by the development of the integrated system engineering offering for critical infrastructures. The contribution of the newly acquired FasThink and the evolution of the offering of the AI native start up InfraWise will further strengthen the Group’s positioning through scalable proprietary solutions dedicated to complex industrial environments. In Fintech, the first quarter recorded growth in digital payments and consumer credit solutions, with further development expected in the digital payments segment starting from the second quarter. The Martech segment continues its growth path in both domestic and international markets, with positive developments expected from the integration of Net-MediaClick with the Refine offering.

In the first quarter of 2026, the Digital Advisory division confirmed a sustained growth trend, driven mainly by the delivery of the backlog relating to public sector tenders awarded to the companies within the Public Sector cluster, which maintains a residual backlog close to €100 million. During the quarter, the Group also participated in new public tenders for an aggregate value of approximately €500 million in the Digital Advisory and Software Engineering segments, with awards expected by year end. In Martech, the projects developed by the subsidiary I MILLE are contributing to organic growth moderately above plan targets, with further development expected over the course of the year. Overall, the Digital Advisory division is expected to maintain double digit organic growth in 2026, albeit at levels lower than the +23.4% recorded in the first quarter.

The Software Engineering division recorded sustained organic growth in the first quarter, driven in particular by the Gaming and Industrial segments. For the coming quarters, management expects a gradual normalisation of growth rates towards levels consistent with the industrial plan. In the Aerospace & Defence segment, the Group continues to be involved in new multi year projects, both domestic and international, with prospects of sustained medium term growth. In this context, the acquisition of the EDF (European Defence Fund) project is noteworthy, for which TXT will act as coordinator within a consortium composed of leading industrial players, including Dassault, Safran, MBDA and Indra, as well as prestigious academic institutions such as Politecnico di Torino and the Fraunhofer Institute. In the Public Sector, the Group continues to benefit from the delivery of the backlog relating to public tenders already awarded, while further development opportunities are expected from CONSIP tenders currently in the awarding phase and due by the end of 2026. The Industrial vertical continues to contribute positively to the division's growth thanks to the development of the integrated system engineering offering for critical infrastructures, while activities aimed at expanding the offering perimeter through strategic acquisitions are ongoing.

On 1 April 2026, TXT announced the closing of the acquisition of 100% of the share capital of FasThink S.r.l. ('FasThink'), a company specialised in the development of proprietary hardware software solutions and in the integration of IT/OT systems for complex industrial environments. The transaction strengthens TXT Group's positioning in the Industrial segment and expands the end to end Smart Solutions offering dedicated to the digitalisation of production processes and industrial data management. Founded in 2011, FasThink employs around 20 highly specialised professionals and recorded revenues of €4.4 million in 2025, with an operating margin of approximately 20%. The consideration for the acquisition of 100% of the company, net of any earn out, claw back mechanisms and adjustments related to net financial position, amounts to €4.5 million, paid 75% in cash and 25% in TXT e solutions shares. The implied multiple of the transaction is approximately 5x 2025 Adjusted EBITDA, excluding variable components. The selling shareholders will continue to support the company's development by maintaining operational and managerial roles.

On 4 May 2026, TXT announced the acquisition of 100% of the share capital of NetMediaClick S.r.l. ('NetMediaClick'), a MarTech company specialised in Performance Marketing and Retail Media solutions. The transaction strengthens TXT Group's positioning in the MarTech offering, expanding its presence in proprietary technologies and market verticals complementary to those already developed within the Smart Solutions segment. Founded in Milan in 2007, NetMediaClick operates as a Tech Media Company focused on Performance Marketing and Retail Media and employs around 20 qualified professionals. In 2025, the company recorded revenues of €4.6 million, with Adjusted EBITDA of approximately €0.9 million and an operating margin of around 20%. Among the company's distinctive assets are ADBox, a proprietary technology for managing in store advertising content, and proprietary platforms for the management of deterministic data in compliance with GDPR regulations. The consideration for the acquisition of 100% of NetMediaClick, net of any earn out, claw back mechanisms and adjustments related to net financial position, was set at €5.5 million, paid 80% in cash and 20% in TXT e solutions shares. The consideration was determined on the basis of a multiple of approximately 6x 2025 Adjusted EBITDA, excluding variable components. The founders and Managing Directors of the company will remain involved in operational management to support the integration and business development process.

Following the investments made for the acquisition of Nexteon's SmartRoutes division (Smart Solutions for Aerospace & Defence), FasThink (Smart Solutions for Industrial) and NetMediaClick (Smart Solutions for Martech), as well as the additional investments in the AI native startups InfraWise and Altilia, the TXT Group confirms its strategy of selective capital allocation, in line with the external growth objectives defined in the 2025–2027 Industrial Plan. The Group's strategy remains focused on the acquisition of complementary technologies, the strengthening of competitive positioning in strategic markets and the expansion of the high value added proprietary offering. Despite a macroeconomic and geopolitical context that continues to present elements of uncertainty, management believes that the impacts on the Group's business remain limited to date and that the market continues to offer attractive opportunities for growth and consolidation in the main reference sectors.
