ADRIAN APPIOLAZA TO LEAVE HIS ROLE AS CREATIVE DIRECTOR OF MOSCHINO

Milan, 19 June 2026 – After more than two years of collaboration, Moschino and Adrian Appiolaza have mutually agreed to part ways, with effect from today.

Massimo Ferretti, Executive Chairman of Aeffe S.p.A., said: “I would like to thank Adrian Appiolaza for his significant contribution to the development of Moschino over the past two years and wish him every success in his future professional endeavors”.

Adrian Appiolaza commented: “I was given a remarkable opportunity to express my creativity for an important Italian brand with an extraordinary creative heritage such as Moschino. I am grateful to AEFPE, and in particular to Massimo Ferretti, for this opportunity. I would also like to thank the entire creative team with whom I shared this intense experience”.

The new Creative Director will be announced in due course.
